

Special Events

Greensboro is dedicated to facilitating safe and successful community events on its streets and in its parks.

Our office manages applications, coordinating with the relevant city departments, and supports event organizers through the permitting process for events within the city.