

Planning Department

The Planning Department deals specifically with current and long-range planning. The goal is to regulate the development of land while balancing the desires of residents with vital services and resources.

